1+1 UQ Master of International Economics and Finance

between UQ School of Economics and TKU Department of Economics

Information as at: 05 March 2024

The following TKU courses are recommended for the maximum credit (8 units) towards the 1.5 year UQ Master of International Economics and Finance (MIntEcon&F) program

Tamkang University Courses	UQ courses
Students are required to complete the following specified 4 courses for the Credit listed below, and will receive Credit for one #2 unspecified elective course on the basis of any other 3 credit point course completed under the TKU Master program.
Microeconomic Theory (R)	ECON7110 Consumer and Firm Behaviour (core)
Econometrics (I) (R) PLUS	ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics (core)
Econometrics (II) (E)
Security Analysis (E)	FINM7401 Finance (core)
Any other 3 credit point Master program	#2 unspecified general elective course – compulsory (R) or elective (E)

Notes:

- 1. This assessment was undertaken between August 2021 and May 2022 and will be due for renewal in 3 years' time according to UQ credit policies.
- 2. TKU students may receive Exemption for the core courses ECON7021 The Macroeconomy and ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics based on previous bachelor study and if exempted, will be required to replace with an MIntEcon&F program elective in each instance.
- 3. The above 1+1 articulation is correct at the time of printing but may be subject to change and should be used as a guideline.
- 4. Students are required to seek assistance from an advisor within the UQ School of Economics upon their arrival at UQ to finalize their study plan. Email: econ.pgrad@uq.edu.au
- 5. Program Details: https://study.uq.edu.au/study-options/programs/master-international- economics-and-finance-5590. At the time of application, the 1.5 year (24 unit) option should be indicated/ticked in the online application process.
- 6. Students can refer to the suggested study plan of 1.5 years reduced duration in the School of Economics website here.

1+1 UQ Master of International Economics and Finance

between UQ School of Economics and TKU Department of Industrial Economics

Information as at: 05 March 2024

The following TKU courses are recommended for the maximum credit (8 units) towards the 1.5 year UQ Master of International Economics and Finance (MIntEcon&F) program

Tamkang University Courses	UQ courses
Students are required to complete the following specified 3 courses for the Credit listed below, and will receive Credit for two #2 unspecified elective course on the basis of any two 3 credit point course completed under the TKU Master program or course combinations indicated below.
Intermediate Microeconomics (R)	ECON7110 Consumer & Firm Behaviour (core)
Econometrics (R) PLUS	ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics (core)
Data Analysis and Empirical Research (E)
Other 3 credit point Master program course –	Total 4 units for elective courses on the basis required (R) or elective (E)	of:
Industrial Economics (R)	#2 unspecified general elective
Price Theory & Practice (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Theory of Firms and Market Strategies (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Economic Performance Between Countries (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Health Economics (E) PLUS	ECON7460 Health Economics (#2)
Topics on Health Care Industry (E)
Resource Economics and Management (E) PLUS	ECON7720 Ecological & Environmental
Environmental Economics & Policy Analysis (E)	Economics (#2)
Doctoral program courses completed under
Master program
#D Advanced Econometrics	ECON7330 Advanced Econometric Theory (#2)
#D Applied Microeconometrics (I)	ECON7320 Advanced Microeconometrics (#2)
#D Advanced Microeconomics (I)	ECON7030 Microeconomic Theory (#2)

Notes:

- 1. This assessment was undertaken between August 2021 and May 2022 and will be due for renewal in 3 years' time according to UQ credit policies.
- 2. TKU students may receive Exemption for the core courses ECON7021 The Macroeconomy and ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics based on previous bachelor study and if exempted, will be required to replace with an MIntEcon&F program elective in each instance.
- 3. The above 1+1 articulation is correct at the time of printing but may be subject to change and should be used as a guideline.
- 4. Students are required to seek assistance from an advisor within the UQ School of Economics upon their arrival at UQ to finalize their study plan. Email: econ.pgrad@uq.edu.au
- 5. Program Details: https://study.uq.edu.au/study-options/programs/master-international- economics-and-finance-5590. At the time of application, the 1.5 year (24 unit) option should be indicated/ticked in the online application process.
- 6. Students can refer to the suggested study plan of 1.5 years reduced duration in the School of Economics website here.

1+1 UQ Master of Economics between UQ School of Economics and TKU Department of Industrial Economics

Information as at: 05 March 2024

The following TKU courses are recommended for the maximum credit (8 units) towards the 1.5 year UQ Master of Economics (MEcon) program

Tamkang University Courses	UQ courses
Students are required to complete the following specified 3 courses for the Credit listed below, and will receive Credit for two #2 unspecified elective course on the basis of any two 3 credit point course completed under the TKU Master program or course combinations indicated below.
Intermediate Microeconomics (R)	ECON7110 Consumer & Firm Behaviour (core)
Econometrics (R) PLUS	ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics (core)
Data Analysis and Empirical Research (E)
Other 3 credit point Master program course –	#2 unspecified general elective required (R) or elective (E)
Industrial Economics (R)	#2 unspecified general elective
Price Theory & Practice (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Theory of Firms and Market Strategies (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Economic Performance Between Countries (E)	#2 unspecified general elective
Health Economics (E) PLUS	ECON7460 Health Economics
Topics on Health Care Industry (E)
Resource Economics and Management (E) PLUS	ECON7720 Ecological & Environmental
Environmental Economics & Policy Analysis (E)	Economics
Doctoral program courses completed under
Master program
#D Advanced Econometrics	ECON7330 Advanced Econometric Theory
#D Applied Microeconometrics (I)	ECON7320 Advanced Microeconometrics
#D Advanced Microeconomics (I)	ECON7030 Microeconomic Theory (core)

Notes:

- 1. This assessment was undertaken between August 2021 and May 2022 and will be due for renewal in 3 years' time according to UQ credit policies.
- 2. TKU students may receive Exemption for the core courses ECON7021 The Macroeconomy and ECON7310 Elements of Econometrics based on previous bachelor study and if exempted, will be required to replace with an MEcon program elective in each instance.
- 3. The above 1+1 articulation is correct at the time of printing but may be subject to change and should be used as a guideline.
- 4. Students are required to seek assistance from an advisor within the UQ School of Economics upon their arrival at UQ to finalize their study plan. Email: econ.pgrad@uq.edu.au
- Program Details: https://study.uq.edu.au/study-options/programs/master-economics-5399. At the time of application, the 1.5 year (24 unit) option should be indicated/ticked in the online application process.
- 6. Students can refer to the suggested study plan of 1.5 year reduced duration in the School of Economics website. master-econ-32-24-program-plans-2024.pdf (uq.edu.au).